

What is iLrn?

The web-site <http://ilrn.com> gives you an access to various on-line tests created specifically for MATH 1036 and MATH 1037. Among them you will find diagnostic tests that contain questions from various parts of high-school mathematics and evaluate you readiness for the Calculus course. The rest are tests on various topics of calculus. You scores on these test will not affect your mark in any way, and taking tests is optional. Nevertheless, you are strongly recommended to take these tests. The number of attempts for each test is unlimited.
