

"People say that music changes the world but what about the world that changes the music."

Global Soundscapes

Radio series

Global Soundscapes is a radio series that has been researched and written by Nipissing University Music students and produced by students of Canadore's Broadcasting – Radio Program. The series includes four programs: Music and Politics, Music and Ritual, Music and Memory, and Music and Migration. The programs will air on Canadore Radio and will be available as podcasts at the college radio station website.

www.thepanther.ca

You are cordially invited to a reception followed by the launch of Global Soundscapes

on January 25, 2008
1:15-2:00 p.m. in the Canadore Room

For more information contact

Marcia Ostashewski
marciao@nipissingu.ca

or

Sue Childs
Sue.Childs@canadorec.on.ca

