

CHAPTERS 4 & 5: SERVICE DELIVERY & THE IEP

(Read pages 40-73 and answer the following questions)

TRUE or FALSE

1. _____ Resource assistance for students is always carried out in the special education classroom.
2. _____ “Section 23” is the programming name referred to, whereby the Ministry of Education specifically provides educational services in specialized settings, such as “care and treatment facilities”.
3. _____ Course reduction is considered a viable option for students at the secondary level who require additional support.
4. _____ The School Team is generally a forum of last resort in cases of special need(s).
5. _____ It is the sole responsibility of the assigned special education teacher in a school to develop the IEP.
6. _____ Information from assessment plays a significant role in developing a students’ IEP.
7. _____ When it comes to a students’ IEP, progress must be reviewed at least once every reporting cycle.
8. _____ Regulations require that a Transition Plan must be developed for every identified student who is fourteen years or older.
9. _____ By regulation, a student who is 16 years or older may participate in a School Team meeting at which his or her IEP is being developed.

SELECT THE CORRECT ANSWER TO COMPLETE THE STATEMENT:

10. “Section 23” specifically refers to the number and _____ of the funding regulation that permits approved facilities for Care, Treatment and Custodial or Correctional purposes, to receive “provincial dollars” for their ultimate functioning
(a) section                      (b) type                      (c) geographic location
11. In Ontario, “step four” of the “five step” process, which most boards of education utilize in identifying their students, would see the student referred to the _____.
(a) IEP                      (b) IPRC                      (c) In-school Team
12. It is stated that the IEP is a “_____” that should “reside on a teacher’s desk providing easy access to all”.
(a) set of suggestions      (b) working document      (c) detailed overview